Grand Knight's Message

A couple of recent activities are worthy of summarizing here. We pulled the bonfire off October 19th despite some persistent winds. Thanks to Jim Kotleba, Dennis Kwain, and "B.B. (for burgers and brats) Edwards" for organizational efforts before and the night of, and Steve and Sylvia Francois for strummin' and singing. Thank you Chad Koppie, for once again offering your fine place in the country.

The beautiful chalice we Knights donated to the parish was presented in a heart-warming ceremony last Saturday. Connie, and her and Al's daughters Linda and Carol attended, along with their children. Many Knights and other parishioners brought the attendance to about 40. Fr. Lopez graciously accepted for the parish and thanked the Knights for the contribution. Al's family was very touched by the remembrance.

Reminder: The deadline is here for submitting Vocation raffle tickets. Bring them to Monday's meeting or mail to our P.O.Box (top of page) to arrive no later than the 15th. We sold 300 in the narthex following the masses two weeks ago!

November is Thanksgiving month and we are thankful for our priests and deacons who care for our spiritual well-being. Attend the Clergy Appreciation Dinner the 16th to thank them in person and as a group. Fred McCarthy has tickets Feed the masses...

...after the masses on November 18. The Knights are hosting a breakfast in the school gym. Please come help, it's fun and a chance for our Parish to bond. Call Hank Schmalen at 426-7326 or Dan Biggins at 428-6758 to sign up.

New Recruiting Flyer

The tri-fold flyer to interest prospective members has been updated. We incorporated the "24 Hours a year" story from Knightline, and posted recent accomplishments of 8596 as well as the worldwide contributions of Knights. There's still time to ask someone to join November 12th so they can become a Knight before Christmas.

We welcome to 8596 Ed Lesser who just completed the royal flush of 1-2-3 degrees, and Trey Fettes and Mike Migliorato and who have been reinstated as Knights.

Insurance

Paul Kehoe is our Insurance Field Agent. Paul can be reached at 847/219-9777.
